John E. Dooly has not yet given up the fight against the water proposition. He now claims that the Commercial club meeting was packed against him and his satellites; that they were permitted to select but one chairman of the meeting; that the time of the meeting was monop-

LOCAL BRIEFS.

GOT NINETY DAYS EACH .- Tim Sul livan and Jim Buckley, who are thought by the police to be members of the gang of safecrackers and hold-ups doing busi-ness in the city, were sentenced to ninety days by Judge Diehl yesterday afternoon. PLEAD NOT GUILTY.—Frank Colyer and William Murphy, who were arrested last Sunday night for holding up two men on West First South street, yesterday morning in the police court, plead not guilty to the charge. They wik be tried an. 7 at 10 a. m. LAND BOARD MEETS.—The state board of land commissioners held its regular monthly meeting yesterday, at which the work of the year was checked up preparatory to making an annual report to be submitted to the governor some time during the month of January.

On the List.

WOMAN NOT INSANE.—The county commissioners yesterday found a home for Mrs. Marie Weigger, the aged woman tried in the district court on the charge of insanity and discharged by Judge Lewis. She will be cared for by Mrs. John Weber, who lives in the rear of 724 East Fifth you they validity of their orficial acts by morning.

Stock in a Candy Company.

The keen contest that developed yesterday for the possession of the fifty-five shares of stock in the Shupe-Williams Candy company, which is part of the personal property of the Daniel W. Shupe estate, was carried to the probate court when the question of the confirmation of the sale of the block at $500 per share was brought before Judge Rolapp. A bid was made in open court by Mrs. Pearl Decker of $12,150, a raise of $1,150 over the bid of Joseph Scowcroft, and which bid the administratrix of the estate had petitioned the court to accept. James Pingree thereupon raised this bid $400, making a total bid of $12,500 for the block of fifty-five shares. The court then took the matter under advisement and will take it up again this morning at 10 o'clock in order to give other bidders a chance to offer advanced prices.

THE PASSING OF THE YEAR Kansas Farmer Investigating Cutler Mountain Tragedy.

The old year is dying. A few more feeble heart beats and 1904 will pass into eternity. At midnight another victory will be placed to the credit of Father Time. In this city there will be many watch parties, where the death of the old year and the birth of the new will be celebrated with music, song and story. The University club will hold high carnival until the ringing of bells, blowing of whistles and explosion of torpedoes announce that one more milestone has been passed in the ceaseless march toward the unknown.

Flans have been made in many homes and in many clubs and halls were societies meet to keep open house to families, members and invited guests. The day promises to be observed more generally than has been the case in many years. Third street at 12:30 and 1 o'clock on the total parties and Second.

Salina, Kan., Dec. 30.—E. W. Carlson, a farmer of this county, is making an indivision of the Cutler mountain tragedy, farming and the week, with snow on the ground, ice on the ponds and snap in the air, there was much to spur people to holiday festivities. The thaw, the slush and the warmer weather removed this spirit and depressed trade accordingly. In most business houses inventory work was on in full blast.

Monday will be observed by many as a holiday because the regular holiday comes on Sunday. The observance will not be as general as was the case for Christmas. The Utah Light & Railway company had admit the principal car lines throughout the city so that those who wish to see the old year out and the new year in can catch cars to all parts of the city. Cars will leave Main street at 12:30 and 1 o'clock on the following lines throughout the city so that they were a come and soon the woman went to Colorado Springs and the description of the Cutler mountain trage-dy, fearing that is dealing the week. VERY LITTLE CHANGE Deputies and Clerks of Weber County Are Nearly All o the validity of their official acts by morning. taking the oath of office on that day, they will be sworn in Tuesday.

As announced several weeks ago in The Herald, there will be very few changes in any of the offices. County Clerk-elect David Matson, who succeeds Charles R. Hollingsworth and who is the only new county officer elected, will retain all the present deputies and some of the clerks.

It is expected that Frank Chapin will be chief deputy again in the office of Assessor Edwin Dix.

In the county treasurer's office it is exected that Mr. Chambers will retain ecorge M. Hanson and H. W. Naisbitt, as deputies. A federal plum is apt to me within reach of Hanson ere long, and it is probable that John D. Hooper Hooper will find a place in the treasper's office.

The deputy again in the office of Assessive and the Musical Courier of New York says considerable attention to Utah musical affairs. Mention is made of the cantata, "Garden of Flowers," under Mrs. Martha Royle King's direction, of the Salt Lake Symphony orchestra's concert, the death of H. S. Goddard, and other events. The Salt Lake letter is signed by J. J. Mc-Clellan, who is now the Courier's local representative.
